FROM STATE SYNOD

REV. VAN NUYS REPORTS
A PROFITABLE SESSION.

Evangelistic Work Will Be Prosecuted With Great Vigor All Over Oregon During the Coming Year—Finances and All Other Affairs of the Church in Most Gratifying Condition—Rev. Van Nuys a Delegate to General Assembly—Next Presbytery at Pendleton.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys returned last night from attending the State Presbyterian Synod at Portland. He brings with him the echo of great enthusiasm and a record of a very successful session.

Mr. Van Nuys states that it was unanimously agreed by laymen and clergy alike, that this session of the synod was the most profitable and enjoyable ever held in the state, and its members were veterans who have seen service in the Presbyterian church in Oregon for over 40 years. It was also the largest in point of attendance.

The synod without hesitation ratified the request made by the last session of the Eastern Oregon Presbytery, and formally effected the division of that presbytery along exactly the lines suggested last summer. The Pendleton Presbytery comprises Umatilla, a part of Grant, all of Crook, Sherman, Wheeler, Wasco, Morrow and Gilliam counties. The Grand Ronde Presbytery consists of all of the remaining territory of the old Eastern Oregon Presbytery.

The division of the Presbytery was made to add efficiency to the church's various interests in the territory described by promoting facility in attendance and condensing the work, making it easier handled.

One of the matters of the greatest general interest, the evangelistic work, was the topic of almost paramount importance, or at least was made such by the universal interest and enthusiasm concerning it. This feeling the general assembly is in full touch with, as is evidenced by the fact that it will send from the East during the coming winter some of the ablest and most forceful evangelists in the church—in fact, will send more of them, and at a greater expense, than to any other one state in the Union.

The volume and high character of work which the general assembly will put forth in revival work in this state during the coming few months is the result not so much, if at all, is a feeling of necessity, as it is a disposition to take advantage of the promising conditions; to enter into the harvesting of a ripe field. At no time in the history of the church in this state has its finances been in such stable and sound condition, or its membership so large, and its extension work shown such gratifying progress as during the past year or more.

From November until the general assembly meets next May an active campaign will be carried on in all parts of the state. During those months some of the greatest English speaking evangelists who labor under the auspices of the Presbyterian church will labor in Oregon, and some of them will reach Pendleton, although it is not known at this juncture who will come here.

Among the several new church buildings erected during the past year in this state is one at East Portland—a large and beautiful structure. All the year there has been a steady and large increase in the membership of the church all over the state.

The first session of the Pendleton Presbytery will be held in April next at Pendleton.

The next session of the State Synod will be held at La Grande during October, 1905.

Rev. Van Nuys was chosen commissioner to the general assembly which meets next year at Winona, Ind., during May.

Was Ill at Boise.

Miss Mollie Hendrixson has arrived from spending the summer at Boise and will, after visiting a few days with the Sorensons, go to Ellensburg, where she will teach music the coming winter. After leaving here last spring she was taken ill with typhoid fever while staying with friends near Boise, and her health has been so precarious this summer that her arrival here was delayed several weeks. Had she been able to reach Pendleton some weeks ago, she would have organized a music class here and remained for the winter.

Dr. Johnson Has Returned.

Dr. H. B. Johnson has returned from spending the summer at Beloit, Wis., and in Chicago and in other Eastern points. Mrs. Johnson has been suffering with rheumatism for some time which delayed her return in consequence, but will arrive in a few weeks. In Chicago they visited with their daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith, formerly of this place. Dr. Johnson is the father of Councilman H. F. Johnson.

Found No Land to Suit Them.

Smith Adamson has returned from prospecting through the southern part of the county and in Grant county for government land with his brother-in-law, Harry Strawn. They found nothing to suit them, and the latter returns in very poor health, being almost disabled by rheumatism. Mr. Strawn will take baths at Hot Lake for a few weeks before leaving on his return to Waynesburg, Pa.

New Crossing Being Placed.

Street Commissioner Brown is putting new and much needed crossings in at the following intersections: At the corner of Railroad and Main streets, adjacent to the new Bowman building; Washington and Main, College and Webb, adjacent to the planing mills; and one will soon be rebuilt at the intersection of Court and Johnson, adjacent to the Hotel Bickern.

Idaho Presidential Elector.

E. W. Oliver, of Grangeville, Idaho, one of the republican candidates for presidential elector, is well known in Eastern Oregon. He is a prominent stockman, mine operator and banker and has many friends in this section of the state. His daughter, Mrs. C. S. Haynes, wife of the O. R. & N. operator, resides in this city.

THE JOURNAL AFTER READERS

PORTLAND PAPER TO ASK FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

No Charge to Be Made for Descriptive Matter in Umatilla County Special Edition, Which Has Been Indorsed by Officers and Managers of Commercial Association—Excellence of the Journal as a News Medium and Champion of the People.

A representative of the Oregon Daily Journal will call on you during the next few days to invite you to become a regular reader of that paper, if already you have not been placed on the subscription list. The Daily Journal is a newsy paper for busy people, edited by a corps of trained men. It is a fearless institution, catering only to THE PEOPLE, and fighting their battles. Its telegraphic news is a careful selection from the immense mass of the world's daily records, its local columns snappy and comprehensive, its market page the most reliable in the state.

A Free Special Edition.

Without charge to the business men, the Journal will give a finely illustrated description of this region in a special Umatilla county edition. The Journal will help your county, and asks in return only that you join the family of readers. Here is a local indorsement of some significance.

"The Oregon Daily Journal of Portland, having sent to Pendleton a representative with instructions to prepare elaborate articles with complete illustrations setting forth the resources and advantages of Pendleton and Umatilla county, and having manifested a commendable spirit of liberality and a disposition to perform the legitimate functions of a newspaper published in the chief city of the state, by printing descriptive matter of the various regions of the state without charge for the space utilized, we, the subscribers hereto, members of the board of managers of the Commercial Association of Pendleton, unhesitatingly commend the project as calculated to forward the interests of the city and county."

"We suggest that, in order to utilize the proposed special edition and secure results commensurate with the effort and expense to be given by the Journal, it would be wise to see that a considerable number of copies are sent directly to known homeseekers in the East, as well as to the St. Louis exposition, where, according to statements by citizens who have returned therefrom, a heavy demand is met for literature concerning Oregon."

TAKES RADIUM TREATMENT.

J. H. Koontz, of Echo, Carries a Speck of the Precious Mineral. While there is only about a half pound of radium in existence in a refined state, J. H. Koontz, of Echo, carries in his pocket the least shining, flickering, piercing ray of this wonderful mineral.

He is taking the radium treatment for threatened paralysis and a small, steel-clad capsule, in the shape of a 22-calibre cartridge, incloses an infinitesimal speck of radium, which is strong enough to thoroughly charge a glass of water, by holding the capsule over the glass for about 90 seconds.

If Mr. Koontz were not being benefited by this simple, "moonshine" treatment, as he calls it, he would be skeptical in regard to the effect of the mineral, but he says the treatment is helping him.

Although the little speck of radium is invisible to the naked eye, yet on taking it into a darkened room a beautiful purplish, changeable light is thrown off from the capsule.

When it is remembered that the half pound of radium in the world is valued at $200,000 an ounce, and is a most difficult article to possess, in any quantity, it will be seen that the capsules are not filled with the substance by any means, but inside a wrapping of indestructible material inclose a speck finer than the point of the smallest needle and absolutely invisible to the best naked eye.

BROKEN KNEE CAP.

J. L. Wynne Fell Into Excavation and Received Severe Injuries.

J. L. Wynne is at St. Anthony's hospital suffering from the effects of a broken knee cap. Wynne stumbled in the darkness and fell into the excavation for the new John Schmidt building. His left knee cap is broken and the ligaments of the knee are badly strained. It is not known yet whether the patient will entirely recover.

Wynne's relatives reside in Fresno, Cal., and he has been in this city about four years, in the employ of F. X. Schempp. The day before Wynne was hurt he received an invitation to attend his sister's wedding, and was preparing to make the trip to Fresno.

MULLEN AND TRACY FIGHT.

Bout Is Arranged in Portland for Two Well Known Sports. Barney Mullen, the lightweight, has challenged Tommy Tracey, the prominent Portland boxer, for a bout in that city, on the night of November 2. Tracey and Charley McKeever were matched for that date but the go has been declared off. Last night Mullen wired Tracey that he would take McKeever's place.

"I am willing to fight Tracey at 142 pounds, ringside," said Mullen, "give or take two pounds."

If the match can be arranged between Mullen and Tracey, the former will go to Portland immediately after his fight in this city next Monday evening with Jack Mitchell.

HAINES IS THRIVING.

Town Has Marked Advantage Over Baker City in Some Respects.

A gentleman who came from Baker City a few days, and has interests there and here, avers that there is a decided business depression in that place, due principally to the decline of the mines immediately adjacent. On the other hand, Haines, 12 miles west of Baker City, and a town of but 400 or 500 people at the most, is doing a thriving business in every department of her affairs.

Haines has far more farmers—thrifty and well-to-do tributary to her, and the roads make the place far more accessible to these farmers than is Baker City, and the result is that Haines commands now a far larger country trade, and her business houses are doing a larger and better business than any corresponding number of business houses in Baker City. The railroad has put in stockyards at Haines and it is stated that these stockyards do a larger business than the stockyards at Baker City.

Exhibit of Star Fish.

There is being exhibited in the display window at Lee Teutsch's department store a rare collection of star fish, which is a duplicate of the star fish display sent by the state of Washington to the World's Fair at St. Louis and exhibited in the fishery building. The collection was prepared by J. D. Hillsbery, of Seattle, who supplied the exhibit for Washington. It consists of 131 specimens of the fish which are preserved in their original colors and shapes by an original process of Mr. Hillsbery. The exhibit is attracting a great deal of attention.

Nine Hours Late.

No. 5 westbound passenger train from Huntington, nine hours late, arrived in Pendleton at 8 o'clock this morning. The train consisted of 11 cars and a stop of half an hour was made to allow passengers to secure breakfast in this city. The delay was occasioned by delay on the Union Pacific. Owing to the lateness of the train, No. 1, due in this city at 8:50 o'clock, was run in connection with it.

New Salvation Army Officers.

Captain Henrietta Bigney and Lieutenant Carpenter, of the Salvation Army, will arrive in Pendleton tomorrow to take charge of the local corps. The opening services will be held in the evening at the barracks in Webb street. Captain Bigney comes to Pendleton from a station in California. She was formerly stationed at Baker City and in Walla Walla.

Returned From Synod.

Elder E. A. VanVranken and Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton, returned last evening from attending the State Presbyterian Synod at Portland. They were unanimous in pronouncing it a very enjoyable and profitable session. Mr. Harper comes home ill with grip, barely able to sit up.

Returned From Idaho.

W. L. Simonton has returned from Idaho and Wyoming, where he spent the summer, and this morning went to his Butter creek ranch, 40 miles out. With Mr. Simonton went to Idaho L. T. Foster, who made some investments in that state, and may sell out in this county and remove to Idaho.

New Cinder Pit.

A gang of a dozen men is at work on the new cinder pit west of the O. R. & N. roundhouse. The concrete foundation is finished, and the pit will be in use in about two weeks.

Pilot Rock Merchant in Town.

G. E. Carnes, of the firm of Carnes Bros., merchants of Pilot Rock, is in town today, making arrangements for freighting two carloads of goods out to Pilot Rock, which have just arrived over the O. R. & N. at this place.

Completion of Mumford Residence.

The new J. B. Mumford residence of eight rooms will be completed and ready for occupancy in a few days. It is on Perkins avenue, on the north side, and will be occupied by Glen Winslow, the jeweler.

Residence Nearly Finished.

The new Rinehart residence, on the north side, will be finished this week. It is a five-room cottage and John Horn is the contractor. Murphy is doing the painting.

Will Attend the Institute.

The students of the business college unanimously voted to take a two days' intermission—Thursday and Friday—and utilize the time attending the teachers' institute.
